

Proclamation

WHEREAS, trends in the workplace will cause most Louisianans to change jobs and careers several times in a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, resources, to lessen the impact of such change, are available to prepare for job and career changes through guidance, education, training, work exploration, and job opportunities; and

WHEREAS, a merging of academic, state and private sector resources will make services more accessible to people who need them; and

WHEREAS, a partnership of universities, community and technical colleges, state agencies, business and industry has been formed to educate the citizens of the state about the changing workplace and required work skills; and

WHEREAS, the partnership will continue efforts to provide career-related opportunities through part-time jobs for students and full-time jobs for graduates to help them remain in Louisiana.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kathleen Babineaux Blanco, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim the month of March 2006, as in the State of Louisiana, and encourage all citizens to assist the sponsoring organizations in this vital endeavor for a more prosperous people.
